

Contents

INTRODUCTION

Organizing Models 1

The Equal Access Principle 1

HISTORY OF PROJECT YANO'S EQUAL ACCESS EFFORTS

Developing an Outreach Strategy 3

Developing an Effective Message 4

'84-'85 School Year: Initial Outreach and Access Problems 4

'85-'86 School Year: Outreach to Counselors and New Problems Experienced 5

'86-'87 School Year: More Outreach Components Added 6

Access to Student Newspapers 7

Display Ad Follow-up the Next Year 8

Approaching the San Diego Unified District for Equal Access 9

San Diego Unified's Answer 11

Using the ASVAB to Raise Equal Access and Privacy Issues 11

Gaining Access to High School Career Fairs 12

Struggle Over a Community College Career Fair 14

Moving on to Other Districts 14

Gaining Equal Access in the Grossmont District 16

Revisiting the Issue of Student Lists in San Diego Unified 17

Working with Students 18

CONCLUSIONS

Things to Consider 19

POSSIBILITIES FOR FUTURE CHALLENGES TO ONE-SIDED MILITARY ACCESS

ASVAB 21

JROTC 21

Student lists 21

APPENDIX

Partial List of Groups that Can Provide Resources or Info. on Equal Access A.

Letter to San Diego Unified Regarding Equal Access B.

Equal Access Directive, S.D. Unified C.

Letter to Sweetwater Union Regarding Equal Access D.

iii.

Equal Access Memo, Sweetwater Union	E.
Letter to Grossmont Unified Regarding Equal Access	F.
Letter from Assistant Superintendent Carl Wong, Grossmont	G.
Equal Access Memo, Grossmont	H.
Equal Access Memo, Seattle Public Schools	I.
Equal Access Memo, Austin Independent School District	J.